The Epistle To The Hebrews

Introduction

The epistle to the Hebrews is a unique book in the New Testament. It begins as an essay (He 1:1-2), progresses as a sermon (He 2:1-4), and ends as a letter (He 13:23-25). Its contents are deep and challenging. Many Christians find it difficult; some equate its difficulty with the book of Revelation.

But for Christians willing to take the time to read and reflect upon it, they will be:

- Reminded of how blessed they are to have trusted in Christ
- Impressed with the superiority of Christ and His New Covenant over Moses and the Old Covenant
- Warned of the danger of apostasy and the need for steadfastness in their faith

Author

The author does not identify himself. Many believe it to be the apostle Paul (e.g., Clement of Alexandria) and have offered arguments in his favor (cf. Commentary on Hebrews, Robert Milligan, p. 5-19). Yet it seems unlikely when you consider the author’s statement, “...was confirmed to us by those who heard Him” (He 2:3). This suggests the author received the gospel message second-hand, while Paul declared that he had not received the gospel from or through men (Ga 1:11-12).

Other names have been proposed over the years: Barnabas (suggested by Tertullian), Apollos (suggested by Luther), even Priscilla (suggested by Harnack). Perhaps Origen says it best, “But who wrote the epistle, to be sure, only God knows.”

Recipients

The general consensus is that this letter was written to Jewish Christians. There is uncertainty as to where they and the author were at the time of composition. Many believe the recipients were in Palestine, and the author in Rome. Others suggest the readers were in Rome and the author elsewhere, based upon a possible implication in He 13:24. In any case, they were Jewish Christians whom the author knew personally (He 10:34; 13:19).

Date

We know the epistle was written prior to 96 A.D., because Clement of Rome quotes from Hebrews in his letter that was written at that time. There are certainly strong indications that it was written prior to 70 A.D....

- There is no mention of the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple
- The author writes as though priests were still offering sacrifices - He 8:4; 10:11

If the Jewish Christians were in Palestine, it was likely before or at the beginning of the Jewish Wars (ca. 66-70 A.D.; cf. He 12:4).

The time frame of 63-65 A.D. is often suggested.
Purpose And Theme

The author wrote this epistle to prevent his readers from abandoning their faith in Christ (He 2:1-4). To encourage his Jewish brethren not to go back to the Old Law, he endeavored to show the superiority of Christ and His Covenant (He 8:1-2,6). A key word found throughout the epistle is "better":

- Christ is “better than the angels” - He 1:4
- We enjoy “the bringing in of a better hope” - He 7:19
- Jesus has become “the surety of a better covenant” - He 7:22
- He is also “the Mediator of a better covenant, which was established on better promises” - He 8:6
- The heavenly things benefit from "better sacrifices" - He 9:23

Indeed, the purpose of this epistle was to exhort his readers to remain faithful to the much better things they have in Christ (He 13:22). As for its theme, I suggest the following:

The Superiority Of Christ and The New Covenant

Outline

Here is a simple outline of the book, with its main divisions...

1. The superiority of Christ - He 1:1-8:6
   a. Better than the prophets, as a much better Spokesman - He 1:1-3
   b. Better than the angels, by virtue of His Deity and humanity - He 1:4-2:18
   c. Better than Moses, for He is the Son who provides a heavenly rest - He 3:1-4:13
   d. Better than Aaron, as His priesthood is a superior one - He 4:16-8:6

2. The superiority of the New Covenant - He 8:7-10:18
   a. For it is based upon better promises - He 8:7-13
   b. For it is based upon a better sanctuary - He 9:1-28
   c. For it is based upon a better sacrifice - He 10:1-18

3. Exhortations drawn from this superiority - He 10:19-13:25
   a. Draw near to God and hold fast - He 10:19-39
   b. Run the race of faith with endurance - He 11:1-12:29
   c. Miscellaneous exhortations - He 13:1-25

Key Warnings

A unique feature of the epistle to the Hebrews are the warnings throughout the book. As we conclude this introduction, perhaps it may be profitable to summarize them.

1. The warning against drifting - He 2:1-4
   a. Through neglect we can easily drift away
   b. The solution is to give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard

2. The warning against departing - He 3:12-15
   a. Through sin’s deceitfulness we can become hardened and develop a lack of faith by which we can depart from the living God
   b. The solution is exhort one another daily and remain steadfast
3. The warning against disobedience - He 4:11-13
   a. Like Israel in the wilderness, we can fail to enter our rest through disobedience
   b. The solution is diligence and heeding the Word of God

4. The warning against dullness - He 5:11-6:6
   a. Dullness of hearing can make it difficult for us to appreciate the extent of our blessings in Christ, and even falling away to the point of crucifying the Son of God afresh!
   b. The solution is grasping the first principles of the oracles of God, and then pressing on to spiritual maturity and perfection

5. The warning against despising - He 10:26-39
   a. It is possible to so despise God's grace as to no longer have a sacrifice for sins, but only a certain fearful expectation of judgment
   b. The solution is to hold unto our confidence in Christ, and believe with endurance

6. The warning against defying - He 12:25-29
   a. It is possible to refuse to listen to the One who now speaks from heaven!
   b. The solution is to look diligently to the grace of God, receiving it in such a way so we may serve Him acceptably with reverence and godly fear

With such warnings, this book is indeed a “word of exhortation” (He 13:22)!

The Epistle To The Hebrews

Chapter One

Dispensing with greetings and salutations typical of letters at that time, the epistle to the Hebrews begins like a sermon, with the author immediately declaring the superiority of Jesus. While God spoke in times past to the fathers by the prophets, He now speaks to us through His Son (1-3). Jesus is also demonstrated to be much better than angels (4-14).

Points To Ponder

• How Jesus is superior to OT prophets
• How Jesus is superior to angels

The Epistle To The Hebrews

Chapter Two

The author interrupts his comparison of Christ with angels with his first of six warnings in this epistle: a warning against drifting by neglecting our great salvation (1-4). He then illustrates Jesus’ superiority to angels by being made lower than the angels, whereby He became the perfect captain of our salvation and a merciful and faithful High Priest (5-18).

Points To Ponder

   - To release those subject to bondage through fear of death
   - To give aid to the seed of Abraham
   - To be a merciful and faithful High Priest
   - To aid those who are tempted, having suffered temptation Himself
Chapter Three

Having demonstrated Jesus’ superiority to prophets and angels, the author now compares Jesus to Moses (1-6). The comparison is followed with a reference to Israel’s unfaithfulness in wilderness which leads to the second of six warnings in this epistle: a warning against departing from the living God by developing an evil heart of unbelief (7-19).

Points To Ponder

• How Jesus compares to Moses
• The very real danger of departing from the living God

   - Those led by Moses out of Egypt, who did not obey

9) Why were they not permitted to enter? (19)
   - Because of unbelief
The Epistle To The Hebrews

Chapter Four

Since many Israelites failed to enter their Canaan rest because of unbelief, the author says we should fear lest we come short of our promised rest: heaven (1-10). Diligence is also required, and the third of six warnings is given: a warning against disobedience in view of God’s living and powerful Word (11-13). A positive motivation is then given: our great High Priest, Jesus, who enables us to obtain mercy and grace as needed (14-16).

   - We can approach God’s throne boldly, obtain mercy and grace in time of need
The Epistle To The Hebrews

Chapter Five
How Jesus is superior to prophets, angels, and Moses has been discussed. Now comes Jesus’ superiority to Aaron as High Priest. Qualities necessary to be high priest are reviewed, ably met by Jesus (1-10). Before proceeding further, the author finds it necessary to extend the fourth warning, this one against dullness due to spiritual immaturity (11-14).

    - Those of full age
    - Who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil
Chapter Six

The interruption of the discussion regarding Jesus as High priest continues with a solemn warning regarding spiritual progress, and the need for diligence, faith and patience in order to inherit the promises (1-12). The certainty of God’s promises upon which our hope is based serves as an anchor of the soul that reaches into heaven itself, where Christ is now our High Priest according the order of Melchizedek (13-20).

Points To Ponder

• Elementary principles in the doctrine of Christ
• The very real danger of crucifying again the Son of God
• The basis of our hope that serves as an anchor of the soul

   - Tasted the heavenly gift
   - Tasted the good word of God
   - Tasted the powers of the age to come

4) As those once blessed persist in their sin, what is their condition? Why? (6)
   - It is impossible (for others) to renew them again to repentance
   - They crucify again the Son of God and put Him to open shame

5) What confidence did the author have for his original recipients? Why? (9-10)
   - Better things that accompany salvation
   - Because of their work and labor of love in ministering to the saints

   - An anchor of the soul; into heaven itself where Jesus is our High Priest
The Epistle To The Hebrews

Chapter Seven

Resuming the discussion of Jesus as High Priest, the superiority of Melchizedek to Abraham and Levi is first demonstrated (1-10). Reasons are then given why a new priest after the order of Melchizedek was necessary, which also required a change in the Law (11-19). Finally, the greatness of Jesus as our new High Priest is explained (20-28).

Points To Ponder

• The superiority of Melchizedek to Abraham and Levi
• The change in the priesthood and the annulment of the law
• The superiority of Jesus’ priesthood to the Levitical priesthood

Review Questions

   - In Gen 14:18-20; also Ps 110:4

3) What do Melchizedek and the Son of God appear to have in common? (3)
   - Both appear to be without father and mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life, remaining as priests continually

4) Why is Melchizedek greater than both Abraham and Levi? (4-10)
   - Abraham was blessed by Melchizedek, and the lesser is blessed by the greater
   - Melchizedek received tithes from Abraham and from his descendant Levi (so to speak)

5) Why was there a need for a change in the priesthood? (11)
   - The Law which established the Levitical priesthood made nothing perfect

6) What was required for there to be a change in the priesthood? (12,18)
   - The law had to be changed, indeed, annulled

7) What evidence is there that the Law has been changed? (13-17)

   - Surety of a better covenant - Holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners
   - An unchangeable priesthood - Offered up Himself once for all
   - Able to save to the uttermost - Has been perfected forever
Chapter Eight

Having demonstrated Jesus’ superiority to prophets, angels, Moses, and Levi, the author summarizes: we have a High Priest at God’s right hand who is Minister and Mediator of a better covenant established on better promises (1-6). Our attention is then directed toward that New Covenant which has replaced the Old Covenant (7-13).

The Epistle To The Hebrews

Chapter Nine

To appreciate the difference between the two covenants, their respective sanctuaries and divine services are compared. First the earthly sanctuary and the limitations of its divine services are reviewed (1-10); then the greater and more perfect heavenly sanctuary with emphasis on its better sacrifice, the blood of Christ Himself (11-28).

Points To Ponder

• The symbolism of the earthly tabernacle and its divine services
• The superiority of the heavenly High Priest and His sacrifice

9) For whom will Christ appear a second time for salvation? (28)
   - Those who eagerly wait for Him
The Epistle To The Hebrews

Chapter Ten

The animal sacrifices of the Law (the first covenant) are shown to be insufficient, while the death of Christ fulfills the will of God and perfects those who are being sanctified (1-18). A three-fold exhortation based on what Christ has done (19-25) is followed by the fifth of six warnings, this one against despising God’s grace with willful sin (26-39).

Points To Ponder

- Why Christ’s sacrifice is superior to animal sacrifices
- The importance of drawing near to God, and assembling with brethren
- The terrifying condition of Christians who persist in willful sin

Review Questions

1) What are the main points of this chapter?

   - Let us draw near, let us hold fast, let us consider one another

6) What should we not forsake? (25)
   - The assembling of ourselves together

7) What's meant by “sin willfully”? What's the consequence of doing so? (26-27)
   - To knowingly persist in sin (i.e., presumptuous, rebellious sin)
   - No sacrifice for sin, certain fearful expectation of judgment and fiery indignation

8) Of what is one guilty when they persist in sin? Why should one be afraid? (29-31)
   - Trampling the Son of God underfoot, counting the blood by which one is sanctified a common thing, insulting the Spirit of grace
   - God will judge His people, it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God
